

Indiana Department of Revenue

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 14, 2003

Contact: Cathy Henninger
317/233-3070

Tell City Business Owner Arrested

Richard F. Evans, an Owensboro, Kentucky resident has been arrested on one class C felony and eleven class D felony charges. Mr. Evans is alleged to have collected over $195,686 in Indiana sales tax from his customers in a ten-month period, and failed to remit those taxes to the State of Indiana. A class C felony can carry eight years imprisonment and a class D felony carry three years imprisonment and a $10,000.00 fine per occurrence.

The Indiana Department of Revenue Criminal Investigation Division filed charges with the Perry County Prosecuting Attorney as a result of an investigation into the business practices of Evans Lincoln Mercury Ford, Incorporated that was located in Tell City.

-30-